Cayman Islands

29 October 2026

Dear Class A Ordinary Shareholders

Redemption of Class A Ordinary Shares

Reference is made to the Company's initial public offering of securities on the Nasdaq Global Market which closed on 22 November 2024.

Article 49.7 of the amended and restated memorandum and articles of association of the Company (the "Memorandum and Articles") provides as follows:

"49.7 In the event that:

(a) the Company does not consummate a Business Combination within 24 months from the consummation of the IPO, or such later time as the Members may approve by Special Resolution in accordance with the Articles (the "Deadline Date"); or

(b) if the Directors, acting in good faith, determine by resolution, and provide notice in writing to the Members, that the Company is unable to consummate a Business Combination by the Deadline Date, the Company shall:

(i) cease all operations except for the purpose of winding up;

(ii) as promptly as reasonably possible but not more than ten business days thereafter, redeem the Public Shares, at a per-Share price, payable in cash, equal to the aggregate amount then on deposit in the Trust Account, including interest earned on the funds held in the Trust Account and not previously released to the Company (less taxes payable and up to US$100,000 of interest to pay dissolution expenses), divided by the number of then Public Shares in issue, which redemption will completely extinguish public Members' rights as Members (including the right to receive further liquidation distributions, if any); and

(iii) as promptly as reasonably possible following such redemption, subject to the approval of the Company's remaining Members and the Directors, liquidate and dissolve, subject in each case to its obligations under Cayman Islands law to provide for claims of creditors and other requirements of Applicable Law."
